From the Desk of Fr. Mike

Dear Friends,

First Communion: In one week our second graders will receive their First Communion. There are about 40 of them. Pray for them this week...it's a big deal! First Communion Mass for St Joe students is April 22nd at 3:00 p.m. For St. Vincent students, it will be during the 8:45 a.m. Mass that same day.

Gaudete et Exsultate: Pope Francis recently wrote a new exhortation, Gaudete et Exsultate. Translated, that title means Rejoice and Be Glad. Pope Francis makes some good points in talking about the ancient heresies of Gnosticism and Pelagianism, which are still alive today! The former tempts people to think that they know it all, the latter that they can do it all. We need God and we need each other! We are happiest when we realize this and live this!!

St. Joe Festival: It's hard to imagine but our Festival is almost here. Make sure you plan to attend and help! A great thing about a parish festival is how it brings everybody together. It takes place May 10-12. Thursday 3:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m., Friday 5:00 p.m. - 11:00 p.m., and Saturday Noon - 11:00 p.m. You can sign up to help at www.stjoeshelby.org. You can also take an item off the Festival Tree in the narthex.

VBS: Registration for this summer's Vacation Bible School is now open! It looks like it will be a great week diving into the Mass. The Mass is entirely scriptural and it's the most wonderful thing. The kids will have a chance to put scripture and sacrament together that week. Sweet! Go to www.stjoeshelby.org to sign up.

Ask Fr. Mike: You can also go to our website to submit a question for me or for Deacon Tom! You can ask anything! Questions and answers will appear in the bulletin and maybe even in a homily! We'll start this next week. I already see 8 questions in there!

My prayers and love!
Fr. Mike

St. Vincent News

Sr. Joan's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

Most of you probably know the Emmaus story in Luke's Gospel about the two people walking back to Emmaus all downtrodden after Jesus had been crucified. They didn't know he had risen. If you don't know the story, look it up in your Bible, Luke 24:13-35. This Sunday's Gospel is what happened after the two disciples returned to Jerusalem to tell everyone that they had seen Jesus alive and well. That Jesus had broken bread with them. As I was praying with this reading myself, I thought, we should get that excited about seeing Jesus in the "breaking of the bread" every time we go to mass. We should leave church all excited and want to share with everyone we meet that Jesus has risen from the dead and has done marvelous things for us. Our lives would be so full of life if we did this. As you take time to pray this week, think about how you can spread the news that Jesus has risen and is alive and well and has done marvelous things for you.

St. Joseph/St. Vincent Evangelization

Introducing YOUR St Joseph/St Vincent Evangelization Committee! We are a small group of representatives from both Churches, but if you're a member, you're an important part of what we do. Our goal is to become a Welcoming Church where newcomers encounter the love of Christ when they walk through our doors.

Working in cooperation with the Indy Archdiocese Evangelization & Outreach Initiative, our Parish is reaching out to inactive Catholics and non-Catholics searching for a church home. And we've already put some of our ideas into action:

1. You may have noticed the flier inserts in the bulletins inviting parish members to refer an inactive friend or family member for a personal phone call inviting them back.
2. On Ash Wednesday, visitors and newcomers were greeted with new signage in the narthex, and gift bags with information about Catholicism were available for visitors.
3. New pew cards welcoming visitors are completed and will be showing up in the pews soon!
4. A "Returning Catholics" program is being planned for later this year. Stay tuned for more details!

Your help may be solicited as we move forward with several exciting projects. Please prayerfully consider how you can help make St Joseph and St Vincent a welcoming haven to all visitors.

Catholic Home Missions

There is a second collections for Catholic Home Missions at St. Joseph and St. Vincent Churches on Saturday, April 28th and Sunday, April 29th. This Mission primarily serves home mission dioceses in the United States and its dependencies with missionary activities that strengthen and extend the presence of the Catholic Church. Providing their people with the basic pastoral ministries of Word, Worship and Service.
